Description

This southern traditional home is designed with a split bedroom plan. Visit with family and friends of the front porch as the children play in the front yard. Walking through the foyer, you'll notice the dining room, opening to the expansive great room. Preparing the family's dinner is simple with fluid access to the dining room and a handy breakfast room. Evenings can be spent in your master suite cuddled up reading a book or in the master bath soaking in the whirlpool bath. Upstairs provides children with privacy while the optional bonus room can function as an office.
