Description

With a casual glance you might think this home was a well-kept classic from by gone days. A closer look would reveal this as a loving recreation built for today's family. The covered front porch, grilling porch and covered Porte Cochere expand the living outdoors. Inside the great room and master suite add a grand scale with eleven foot boxed ceilings. The laundry room and a computer center act as a buffer between two bedrooms. The master suite is secluded at the back of the home and features it own entrance to the grilling porch. Other preferred amenities include a master bath with two walk-in closets and a whirlpool bath.
