Description

The Port Cochere, covered area between these dual family traditional homes, is your first hint that something special is waiting for you inside. Superior amenities of this three or four bedroom plan include a main level master suite that features a luxurious master bath with a separate glass shower and corner whirlpool bath as well as two separate walk-in closets. When family and friends gather in the great room they'll be warmed by the cozy fireplace as they enjoy the media center or a book from the built-ins that also display treasured heirlooms. The welcoming grilling porch offers a degree of privacy while adding outdoor living space. A convenient butler's pantry separates the kitchen and dining room. Upstairs, you'll find two more generously sized bedrooms, a bath and bonus area.
