Description

A timeless home plan by Nelson Design Group that blends today's conveniences with common elements from our grandparent's home. This smart design has five bedrooms, three and one-half bathrooms and built-ins galore. Nine-foot ceilings on the main floor give the illusion of a larger space especially in the large great room. A quaint breakfast nook with a nearby grilling porch is centered between the dining room and well-designed kitchen. For the ultimate privacy, the main-level master suite has all of the amenities making it a much adored retreat. Last but not least the upstairs contains four additional bedrooms sharing two full baths and an open area computer center with bookshelves.
