Description

Nelson Design Group has created a functional home while maintaining the charm of a Historical Southern Traditional plan. Entertaining family during the holidays will be easy with the spacious dining room and expansive great room, with even more room for guests to relax on the rear covered porch. The accommodating kitchen offers a snack bar for serving delicious meals buffet-style for a more casual lifestyle. Optional French doors are available for the front bedroom-making the perfect study for both quiet time and office work. Family will feel like royalty in the upstairs home theater and game with a convenient bathroom and plenty of attic storage.
