Description

This Historical Southern Traditional home by Nelson Design Group offers fantastic street appeal for the neighborhood. Sunny mornings can be enjoyed on the covered front porch with hot coffee and a book while enjoying after-dinner conversation on the rear screen-porch. The grand entry foyer has a ten-foot ceiling and round columns making a lavish entry into the great room with fireplace and an eleven-foot ceiling. Many dining options are available in both formal dining room and breakfast rooms, which are separated by the open kitchen complete with center work-island with seating. This split bedroom design offers privacy to the master suite placed at the rear of the home featuring French doors into the private bathroom and corner whirlpool tub.
