Description

A covered porch with brick columns and railing add great street appeal to this Arts and Crafts style home. Enjoy conversation with friends and loved ones in the great room with cozy fireplace. Easy access from the kitchen to the dining room across an angled bar counter makes serving your meals a delight. This design offers a double bedroom area with full bath that is ideal for the kids or overnight guests while separate from the master suite entry. For privacy and convenience the master suite is located at the rear of the house and has a private bathroom and large walk-in closet.
