Description

Brick and stone coupled with a courtyard garage complement this unique plan from Nelson Design Group. A pass through fireplace divides the dining and great rooms. This step-saving kitchen with extra bar seating should prove perfect for the family chef. The luxurious master suite will provide an excellent relaxation spot after a long day. Its private location is just far enough away from the additional bedrooms that occupy the front of the design. Let the enormous screened porch in the rear of this home provide shade and protection from those pesky bugs on a lazy summer afternoon.
