Description

This work of art by Michael E. Nelson provides a spectacular view from the entire rear of this home – perfect for a mountain and lakeview. Rustic columns and cedar trusses are used on the front and rear porches adding the perfect natural element for any setting. Upon entry, the foyer leads into an open great room with vaulted ceiling allowing a magnificent rear view. A nearby kitchen and hearth/dining area open into a large screened porch creating a huge space for entertaining. The luxurious master suite and a secondary suite can also be found on the main level of this home. The lower floor includes an enormous game room as well as two more suites with private baths
