Description

MEN 5283

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes a stunning addition to our Country House Collection. Whispering Winds combines the simple elements of country living with the open elegance that we all crave. From the moment you arrive, the curb appeal is enough to make you feel right at home, from the solid structure columns framing the spacious front porch to the metal roof that pairs beautifully with the white board & batten exterior. A double door entryway leads directly into the luxurious open floor plan with a breathtaking vaulted ceiling. To go along with the open floor plan concept, you'll also enjoy the bedrooms split on each side of Whispering Winds. This 3 bedroom house plan is perfect for entertaining and growing your family!

Open Floor Design

After heading in through the two door entryway of Whispering Winds, you'll find the great room paired nicely with a tall masonry/shiplap fireplace with built-in shelving on each side. Within the Great Room, you'll also find the large dining area overlooking the open kitchen concept. With a large eat-at island and a walk-in pantry, this kitchen is perfect for preparing meals and entertaining at the same time. You'll also find access to the enjoyable, large rear grilling porch, as well as a luxury outdoor living porch.

Main Level Master Suite

To the right of the fireplace, you'll find the entrance to the master suite. With vaulted ceilings to match the great room area, the master suite of Whispering Winds is sure to leave a lasting impression. A double vanity pairs nicely with the private toilet room and walk-in closet, giving way to the private access to the laundry room.

Bedrooms

Two bedrooms on the east wing of Whispering Winds boast a large bedroom space, which pairs nicely with the closet space, and easy access to the bathroom in the hallway. Also with a double vanity, this bathroom has a private toilet and shower room, perfect for dual use in the morning without compromising on privacy.
