Description

MEN 5295

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our Rustic House Collection. Boasting a covered front porch, wooden and stone exterior, and a beautiful metal roof, Spring Mountain Overlook is perfect for that cabin retreat home you've been dreaming of. With tons of outdoor living space on both the front and back grilling porch, Spring Mountain Overlook exudes curb appeal while still staying true to its rustic mountain aesthetic. This 1 bedroom house plan boasts a large kitchen and vaulted ceilings and is the perfect mountain getaway.

Open Floor Design

After taking in all that the covered front porch has to offer, you will find yourself overwhelmed by the, tall vaulted ceiling above the great room. Natural lighting from the exterior windows illuminate the rustic at-home feel of the tall stone fireplace and open floor plan concept. With a large wrap around, eat-at bar top, this space is perfect for entertaining and having friends over to enjoy the mountain views as well.

Main Level Master Suite

Keeping with the great views of the rest of Spring Mountain Overlook, the main floor master bedroom offers multiple vantage points to see your property. With a private bathroom and its own closet storage, the master bedroom offers ample privacy while still being located right off of the great room. An additional exit onto the grilling porch offers great opportunity for outdoor life.
