Description

MEN 5330

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our Multi Family House Collection. If you are looking for your newest investment, Cozy Meadow may be perfect for you! This duplex not only offers tons of curb appeal, but it also employs an open floor, with the kitchen, great room, and dining room sharing one space. An L-shaped eat-at counter lies toward the center, and access to a shared grilling porch is also featured. A breezeway separating the two units also allows easy access from one unit to the other, making this duplex perfect for empty nest couples wanting to live close to each other, as well. To the left is the master suite, which shares a hallway with entry to the garage, as well as a public bathroom. Upstairs holds bedroom 2 and a public bathroom, and balcony overlooks the great room below from a cozy sleeping loft.
