Description

MEN 5371

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes the newest addition to our Traditional House Collection. Westinview Place offers tons of curb appeal to catch the eyes of your guests, a timeless white exterior pairing perfectly with black trim & shutters for a sleek modern look. Inside, you will find plenty of space to entertain your guests, with a massive living room below stunning timber beams open to a double-island luxury kitchen. A covered rear deck also adds an element to your gatherings that your guests won't soon forget. The master suite occupies the left side of Westinview Place and boasts of a high boxed ceiling and private access to the rear deck. The master bath, separated from the bedroom by his and her closets, is a luxury itself, featuring a free-standing tub and a walk-in shower. This level also houses a spacious home office and a half bath for your guests' convenience. The upstairs bedrooms offer plenty of privacy for your guests and growing family, and a stunning daylight walk-out basement features a game room, playroom, and additional guest room. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
