Description

This sleek Nelson Design Group home has a lovely arched window and contemporary hip roofline giving it easy street appeal. Once inside, admire the great room corner fireplace and lovely view of the rear grilling porch. Three windows in the nearby breakfast room and kitchen combo will give good natural light to both areas, while the spacious laundry room just steps away will make household chores less tiresome. You'll love the private computer center centrally located near the kitchen and great room. And for the perfect refuge, check out the secluded master suite with plenty of wall space and an elegant nine-foot boxed ceiling. The private bathroom has a whirlpool tub nestled between two large walk-in closets, double vanities, and a separate shower, making it the perfect refuge.
