Description

MEN 5042

From award-winning designer Michael E. Nelson comes a stunning addition to our Craftsman Bungalow House Collection. Ashland Place showcases a beautiful blend of brick, stone, and shake siding complemented by stone-based columns and wood shutters. Step onto a welcoming covered front porch into a traditional Foyer, where the formal Dining Room lies to your right. Ahead is the heart of this home's open floor plan, perfect for enjoying quality family time. The large Great Room joins with the Kitchen by a large high bar counter with plenty of additional seating! These two spaces also share a breathtaking vaulted ceiling accentuated by stunning timber beams. During fair weather, take the party outside to the Outdoor Living Space and cook something up on the outdoor grill!

On the left side of Ashland Place, optional sliding barn doors will add a homey feel and charm to the Foyer and Bedroom 2 where they open out to. The adjoining hallway features a full bath, as well as Bedroom 3, complete with a private bath. To the right and at the rear of the home, you will find the luxurious Master Suite, with a spacious bedroom and private access to the Grilling Porch. The large Master Bath has all the amenities, including a makeup station, his and her vanities, a free-standing tub, a corner glass shower with seats, and a large walk-in closet. Just outside the suite is a convenient half bath for guests, as well as the laundry room and entry to both garages. The upstairs Bonus Room offers tons of flexibility to suit your needs! This space, complete with a large walk-in closet and full bathroom, could be perfect for a media room or an optional fourth bedroom for the teen in your life. An arched opening balcony overlooking the Kitchen and Great Room below is also an option, and charming barn doors closing it off may also be added for additional privacy. How would you customize this amazing house plan?
