Description

My fondest memories are spending the fall weekends with my best friend at our cabin at Moss Cove. Billy and me used to scare my brothers at night by throwing pine needles on them as they tried to fall asleep. We had the best place to camp out in the upstairs loft and mom would let us stay up all night, if we could. We still to this day play cards on the screened in porch and listen to the crickets chirp. I hope my kids have wonderful memories like I do and someday.... Maybe my grandchildren will reminisce about their campouts in the upstairs loft.
